Stakes for three-year-olds at one mile and a furious. Bedeck was soratched, leaving Gold Heels, Bonnibert and Vitellius to go. Bonnibert, ridden by Shaw, carried top weight, 128 pounds, while Gold Heels, with Burns up, shouldered 119. Gold Heels opened vorite at 9 to 10 with Bonnibert at 11 to 10. on both were at even money, though Gold Heels received the stronger backing. When the flag fell Burns got the rall with Gold Heels, the others being content to lay back. It was not a very fast pace until the middle of the back stretch was reached, where Shaw undertook to wrest the lead from The Bard colt. Then Gold Heels quickened his stride and they raced in dead earnest to the turn. Gold Heels ha' a length and a half over Bonnibert there with Vitellius away back in the dust cloud. As they bounded into the stretch Shaw again urged Bonnibert to go to the front, but though the Albert coit gamely responded to the call, he was unequal to the task out out for him by his ival So Gold Heels, still holding his own and Burns riding him with all the energy at his command, dashed home in a drive, a winner by a length in the fast time of 1:52 2-5.

Vitellius was eight lengths away. Though there were fifteen two-year-olds in the first race of the day, a dash of five furin the first race of the day, a dash of five furlongs, the talent had no trouble in picking the best one. On form Barney Schreiber's this was eagerly gobbled up. There were

It was not with so much success that the talent solved the problem offerred by the second race, a high weight handleap for three-year-olds and upward at three-quarters of a mile. Tom Healey's Kinnikinnic was always favorite, 4 to 5 being reduced to 11 to 20. Strange to say All Gold was allowed to 30 back to fours, while Himself was cut from sevens to sixes. Once away it did not take long to convince the onlookers that the race lay between All Gold and Kinnikinnic, for they raced along to the turn heads apart, after Brookweed, 60 to 1, had killed herself off by making the pace for a quarter of a mile. When straightened out, All Gold, well managed by Tommy Burns, drew away and won in a sharp drive by two lengths. McCue worked hard enough with the favorite to take the place from Himself by three parts of a length. The time, 1:13.

In the third race, for three-year-olds and upward, at one mile and a sixteenth, Anlimosity was a strong even-money favorite, with Lady Chorister backed down from fives to threes, second choice, and Eloim also reduced from fours to 1s to 5. Eloim set a cracking gait along the back stretch, being a length and a half in front of the bunch at one period of the struggle. But Animosity moved up to the son of Inspector B. and raced even with him around the turn. The Star Ruby filly was chock full of speed and came down the stretch with little Thompson drawing things fine. McGinn batted Eloim hard, but the favorite, her jockey still showing supreme confidence in his mount, won easily by a head in 1:47-5. Eloim was eight lengths better than Lady Chorister.

When the fifth race was ready to be run, Capt. S. S. Brown's Hyphen, that ran second to Compute in the Foxhall Stakes last Saturday, was a prohibitive favorite at 2 to 5. Five Nations, with Shaw having the leg up, was second choice at 5 to 1. The others were not seriously considered b were not seriously considered by the students of form. The distance was three-quarters of a mile and six went to the post. To the surprise of the crowd, when the flag sent them off. Disadvantage, 15 to 1, with Beau champ, the Western Jockey on her back, set out to make a runaway of it. The filly was so fiest of foot that at half a mile she had a lead of nearly two lengths. Golden cottage, 5tar of the West and Hyphen were following heads apart. Burns apparently making no great effort on the favorite. But the "sure-thing" men who had played Hyphen were reasonably sure that the Himyar colt would come away in the stretch Disadvantage, however, continued to lead around into the straight and Burns, then for the first time, saw that gruelling tactics were necessary to get the favorite into the argument. With whips swishing against their sides, Disadvantage and Hyphen raced away from the others and neared the wire on even terms. Burns evidently, believed that Disadvantage would tire and come back when in the last few yards but she remained steady to the end and won by a neck, while those who had their money burned up by Hyphen's performance were hot under the collar. The time, 1:13, which was four-fifths of a second slower than Voter's track record, showed that if Hyphen had beaten Disadvantage he would have accomplished quite a feat.

Dolando, the "beef and beans" horse, was Disadvantage he would have accomplished quite a feat.

Dolando, the "beef and beans" horse, was another strong favorite at 11 to 20 to win the last race at a mile and seventy yards. Gold Fox was played down to fives and closed an equal second choice with Fatalist. Gold Fox salled out in front of the others as if he had wings on his feet and near the far turn it seemed as if he could not be beaten. But Shaw rode around him with Dolando and got the money at the wire by three parts of a length. Fatalist beat Gold Fox for the place by five lengths. The time was 1:45. The summaries. PIRST RACE.

Only Starters in the Big Race. The race for the Brighton Cup at two miles and a half to be run to-morrow has fizzled out. It was decided yesterday to withdraw both Blues and Bonnibert, and the impresboth Blues and Bonnibert, and the impression prevailed that the only starters would be Prince of Melbourne and Rochester, a stake horse against a selling plater. There is a feeling of regret over this unfortunate state of affairs, as the Brighton Cup race in recent years has grown to be one of the most important tuif events on the racing calendar. The showing Bonnibert made against Gold Heels in the Seagate Stakes yesterday convinced Trainer Tom Welch that the Albert colt would have no chance against Prince of Melbourne. So Prince of Melbourne will enjoy a practical walkover.

"I cannot help replying to some of the comments of Philadelphia papers on the races. BROOKLYN, 5; NEW YORE, 0.

The toughest pitching problem the New Yorks have faced this season turned up at the Polo Grounds yesterday in the person of Kitson, of the Brooklyns. This twirling adjunct of the Champions was in invincible form. It was merely pastime for the Champions to whitewash the New Yorks with him in the box, for he sent the Harlem hitters back to their clubhouse at the finish of the game with one ionesome base yielding rap to add to their collection. And that one will not occupy a prominent place in the local trophy room, as it was a soratch. It was made by McBride, who slammed a straight one at Kitson, the pitcher sticking out his hand and deflecting the ball which Daihlen probably would have got otherwise. As it was Dahlen made a brilliant one-hand stop and missed nipping McBride at first base by an eyelash. Mathewson's pitching ordinarily would have appeared effective. In truth Mathewson did pitch a good game but Kitson's service was so telling that the New York star's work was dimmed. Except in one inning the Brooklyn hits were scattered and three of their five runs were the outcome of poor fielding. Mathewson has had a good deal of weak hitting by his fellows to overcome this season, but yesterday's was the thinnest supply of stick work by his own side he has encountered. The locals could not hit the ball hard enough to give the opposing team difficult fielding chances. What spectacular fielding there was in the game was done by the New Yorks. Davis and Warner did some exceptionally sharp playing. Warner in throwing to bases and Davis in making stops and taking throws at second base. Hickman made two good plays and two very bad ones.

After Kelley had laced the ball to left for and taking throws at second base. Hickman made two good plays and two very bad ones.

After Kelley had laced the ball to left for two bases in the first inning, Willie Keeler resorted to "buntation." He rolled a teaser to Hickman's domain, whereupon Hickman demonstrated that it is possible for him to make wild throws even if Doyle is not covering first. Grabbing the ball with one hand he let go over Ganzel's head. Keeler scampered to second and Kelley romped home. Dahlen scored Keeler with a line single.

McBride's hit put one New Yorker on base in the first inning. Five more reached first in the other eight inning, all on bases on balls. Only two advanced as far as second base and not one to third base. In the fourth inning Daly hit to Davis, who threw short to first. Ganzel had to step off the base to get the throw and as he was making the catch Daly touched the bag. Davis and Ganzel strode up to Dwyer and kicked at the decision, which did not disguise the fact that it was Davis's error that let Daly reach the base. Dahlen struck out in the sixth inning and left the plate grumbling and Kelley was another who kicked after finding Mathewson's curves too much for him.

"Get 'em over," cried Kelley as Dwyer called a strike. Kelley roared again when he was called out on strikes and clapped his hands together in what supposedly was intended for sarcastic approval on the decision. Then he assumed a fleree look, which sent never a tremer down Dwyer's spine, and then went to his position.

The Brooklyn's two runs in the eighth were due to an infield muff by Hickman, a base on balls to Daly two passed balls and a fielder's choice. The last-named play was Dahlen's grounder to Davis with Sheckard on third and Daly on second. Davis and a fielder's choice. The last-named play was Dahlen's grounder to Davis with Sheckard on third and Daly on second. Davis sent the ball to Warner a trifle too high to nip Sheckard at home and Daly by clever base running came in from third when Warner threw down to Strang with a view of heading off Dahlen. McGuire singled in the ninth inning and Kitson hit to Davis's McGuire was forced, but Strang muffed Davis's assist and both men were safe. Kelley forced McGuire at third, Keeler forced Kelley at second and Sheckard taillied Kitson with a stinger to right. The score:

Irwin batted in the hardest sort of luck yesterday. Hickman made a great stop of his first single, his second was a swift finer to Strang and Davis handled his third, a hard grounder to right. Davis made an unusual play on the last hit. He was running over to cover second base at the time, but kept on when he saw the hall hit, gathered it in on the other side of the base from his position and retired lewin at first. PPTTSBURG, July 23.—Fred Ely, the veteran shortstop, who has been a member of the Pittaburg team since 1895, received his unconditional release to-night before the club started for St. Louis. The reason given by the management for letting the former stargo is that Leach, who is now playing short, is as good a fielder and a better batsman and base runner than Ely. The Pittsburg club to ight signed Pitcher Loheny, recently released by New York and ordered him to report here at once.

threatened to use them if further violence was attempted CHICAGO, July 25,—President Ban Johnson returned to-day from Cleveland, and after a conference with Manager Manning of the Washington club reinstated Capt. Bill Clarke, who was suspended indefinitely for taking his team off the ball field at Cleveland on Tuesday. In place of Clarke's suspension the Washington club was fined $100 for leaving the ball field before the game was finished. Jack O'Prien was fined for cutting third base and playing the kind of ball that caused the trouble, while the game was thrown out. At the time Capt. Clarke refused to play the tying run had been scored by O'Brien of Cleveland, so that the game would have to be played over again even if not thrown out by President Johnson.

Senator Sullivan n his announced intention of building a racetrack on Long Island managed to get hold of very suitable property, partly by purchase and partly by lease. That lease, owever, will be turned over to him and those associated with him at the end of five years, that time being necessary to remove legal obstacles to the sale of the land. Assemblyman Eugene F Vacheron of Ozone Park and Milton Gray, who represented the racetrack syndicate in securing the necessary property is now secure. It is situated on locust and New York avenues, Jamaica, owners on Aug. 20. The farmers have agreed to vacate by that time and will leave their half-grown crops to be destroyed by the half-grown crops to be destroyed by the army of workmen who will begin preparing the track for opening.

The property secured consists of the forty-acre farm of Mrs. Barbara Betz, for which $500 per acre was paid; the fifty-acre farm of August Pfaelser, for which $700 per acre was paid, and twelve acres of Doremus brothers farm, secured at a high price. The tract leased is that belonging to the estate of the late Rachael Ryder. It consists of thirty-eight acres, and a rental of $1,400 a year will be paid for it for the five years, when it will be purchased at a price said to be $1,000 an acre. be $1,000 an acre.

Something like $250,000 will be spent in making the new track. The ground secured is perfectly level, and is near the tracks of the Long Island Railroad. Trains can reach it in twenty minutes from Long Island City and about twenty-five minutes from Brooklyn. The Long Island Electric Railway Company's troiley line runs along the New York avenue side of the property and it can also be reached by first-class macadam roads from all directions.

IN THE 2:07 CLASS FOR TROTTERS: Close Finishes in the Harness Races at Clove-land-Star Pugh, the New York Pacer, Wins After Six Hard Heats-The Abbet Not in Condition for Bace With Croscoms. CLEVELAND, July 25 .- The racing here today was high class throughout, with hardfought contests and many close, exciting finishes. The splendid programme brought out the biggest crowd of the week. In the 207 class trotting the withdrawal of Directum Kelly, who is not quite up to a hard race, left but The Monk and Kingmond to do battle with that sterling campaigner Charlie Herr. To the surprise of every one, Kelly allowed the others to make the pace so slow in the first heat that the three-quarters was turned in but 1 43, thus making it a sprint through The Monk, for when it came to racing his great turn of speed carried him to the wire winner by two lengths in the slow time of 2:13. Kelly employed different methods the next two heats. Herr made a bad break the next two heats. Herr made a bad break in the second mile, but succeeded after a hard drive in picking up the others in the stretch and outstepping them to the wire.

It required six hard heats in the 2:23 class pacing before the New York pacer, Star Pugh, could land the money. After winning the first heat rather handily, he caused consternation among his followers, who had backed him at 2 to 1 over the field, by making his first break of the year, in the second heat. Lockwood properly laid up, the heat going to Dan Maloney's Helen D, by Crafty out of Maggle McDowell, dam of Dan M., 2:09½, by Sidney, who thus enters the 2:10 list. Inghe third heat, Star Pugh was beaten on his merits and decisively by the muchharnessed Plenty. After laying up another heat which was also taken by Plenty. Star Pugh seemed to get a new lease of life, and coming back outfooted his former victor and captured the fifth and sight heats from a now thoroughly fagged out lot of pacers. The contest for the $2,500 hung up for 2:12 trotters was a fierce one throughout. The winner turned up in the big gaited cheetaut stallion Onward Silver by Onward, out of a sister to Kentucky Union, 2:07½. For two heats Cornelia Belle was the most reliable and fleetest, but when Geers got the Onward horse settled in the third heat he showed that he could outfinish the others, but it was only after a hard drive each time.

After working the Abbot to-day in 2:21 with a last quarter in 35 seconds, Mr. Geere expressed it as his opinion that the champion trotter could hardly be put in shape to stand the hard race which Creeceus is sure to give him at Brighton Beach. He has advised the owner of the horse to withdraw him from the race and it is more than probable that he world's record. Summary:

MOTH MILLER BEATEN AT SYRACUSE. Democracy Wins 2:06 Pacing Eastly and Dr.

Randall's Driver Is Pined by the Judges. Synacuse. July 25 .- The talent at Kirk Park to-day selected Baron B. in the 2:18 pacing and a large amount of money went into the pool box on the Baron Posey stallion. The favorite laid up the first heat and got third in the second heat. Before the start of the third heat Baron B sold $20 against $20 for the field He got away well, but a bad break spoiled his chances. Another break in the fourth heat placed him eighth, but he came fast through the stretch and was only beaten a head at the wire. Belle Kuser, winner of the M and M consolation stake last week at Detroit, did not start in the 2:20 trotting, as she is ill with distemper. Agava won the race in straight heats.

In the 2:00 pacing Democracy had everything his own way. Moth Miller, who beat the gray horse here at the first meeting, in the opinion of the judges was not driven out the first heat. Clyde MoBrids of New York city was called to the judges' stand and fined $50 despite the protestation of Dr. David Randall, who stated his horse was sick. Mr. Randall wanted to put driver I. T. Washburne up, but the judges refused to allow this and placed Jones behind the horse. The change did no good, as Moth Miller didn't seem to have the speed. Fred M finished second in the second heat, but was placed back for running. Summary:

The prevailing wind at Hollywood is from the ocean and as the play for the fourth green is directly toward the sea it is not thought that the bunker at 219 yards will be an unfair punishment to even the longest drivers. Should the wind lie with the ball from the fourth tee on either day of play it is possible that the committee may permit the dropping back without penalty from this bunker, but as there are now no local rules the committee will not establish this one unless under pressure from the eentrants.

Although the entries do not close until July 30 with Secretary Thomas J O'Donohue, 101 Front street, it is already evident that the field will be worthy of the special occasion.
